Selling Other Items

Last updated: May 28, 2024

If the transaction line item is of type specified in the Other Item Type option in SMT Configuration, it will be processed with Selling Other Items route. These items do not have COGS and therefore are not expected to reach final margin value.

Typical examples of other item types are Non-Inventory items, Other Charge, Service or Shipping Cost Items.