

ERP and Incoming Trends for 2023

In a fast-changing world, businesses that invest in technology are best placed to make decisions quicker and embrace new ways of working. Enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems are a key component of ensuring your day-to-day business runs smoothly and more and more businesses are seeing it as an integral part of their growth plan.

Find out the latest stats on ERP and incoming trends for 2023...

ERP is a fast-growing market...

The ERP software market is worth more than $25 Billion per year...

...and it's growing at a yearly rate of 10%-20%!

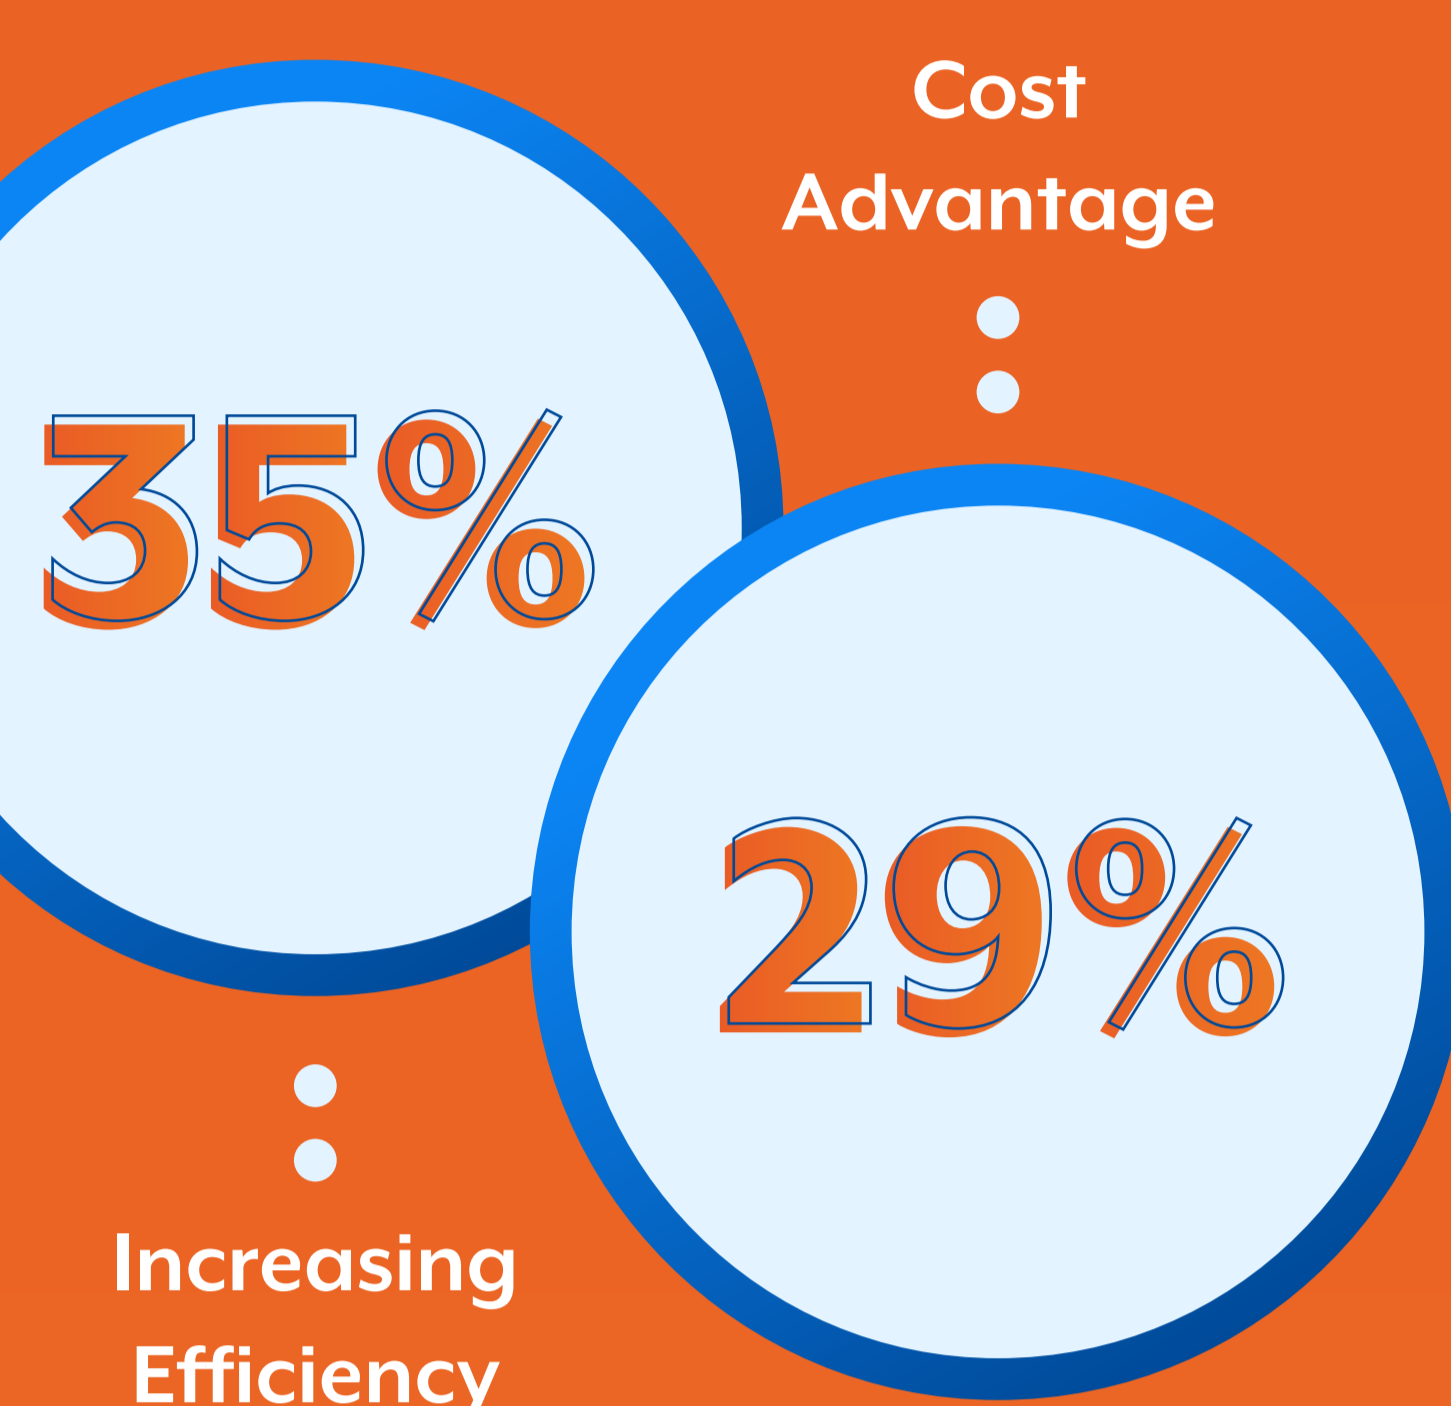

Many businesses see the importance of investing in ERP

53% of IT decision makers say ERP was an investment priority...

...and 50% of companies are soon acquiring, upgrading, or planning to update ERP systems.

And its improving their business processes...

The top reasons to implement ERP:

95% of businesses achieve major improvements after using ERP...

...and it helped them:

88% say their ERP implementation helped them to succeed.

However, not all businesses are utilising their ERP system correctly...

Only 5% of organisations use their ERP effectively to create and augment high-quality data, which is key to effective analytics and insights.

44% of organisations say their ERP is inflexible and are exploring new ERP options.

ERP continues to evolve as technology changes...

The cloud ERP market is expected to grow 13.6% annually.

53% of UK CIO's are looking for more intelligent ERP systems that include machine learning, AI and automation.

But Personalised ERP is vital to success...

82% of UK CIO's choose ERP systems with customisation.

Personalised ERP – Solutions to Help You Grow

Personalised ERP with its real time data insights, cloud integration, automation of processes, problem solving, and risk management is a leading driver of success. Ensuring that your ERP system is personalised to your business can give you:

